

I have been an XM listener for nearly one year and I love it. XM provides me with music, news, weather and soon (hopefully) local traffic info for the Seattle area. There should be no limit to the content broadcasted over XM. Everyone pays for this service. NAB is simply trying to help themselves by eliminating the competition. Don't let this happen!